THOUSANDS of women will get electrical pres- ents this Christmas--- and will be better pleased with them than with other presents costing three or four times as much.

The reason is that electricity is becoming an important factor in the home—it makes work easier and pleasanter—it is essential to modern living.

For instance, an iron will save an hour or two every ironing day—a toaster stove will make delicious toast and cook dairy meals right on the table—a sewing machine motor will save her the fatigue of pedaling, a disc stove for the tea table or nursery. There are many other devices—designed for comfort and convenience. Call and see them.

AT THE THEATERS

EMPIRE THEATER

As a clever and exceedingly vivacious musical comedienne, Miss Dorothy Harris sang her way into the favor of two packed houses at the Empire theater matinee and evening performance on Thanksgiving day, when the young woman made her initial appearance. Miss Harris is a singer who possesses marked talent in her chosen profession. She employs a pleasing mezzo-soprano voice to the best advantage in offering late musical selections. She is gifted with a delightful stage presence and has at her command a wealth of artistic costumes. With an extensive repertoire of songs, Miss Harris, it is predicted, will make a distinct hit with Empire patrons during the brief engagement. Upon leaving here, the singer is to take up work in Australia, visiting all the large cities served by the well-known Ricard circuit.

A fine line of new and up-to-the-minute mainland releases have been received with the last shipment of films from the foremost producing studios on the mainland and in Europe. "The Girl and the Gambler," is a thrilling western picture with a punch. It deals with cowboy life. "His Wife's Relation," is one of those genuinely funny comedies, that leave a good impression.

In "Thou Shalt Not Kill," a powerfully enacted drama is presented. Another comedy will be offered in "What a Change of Clothes Did." The feature of the program for this afternoon and evening performance will be the great war drama incorporated in the picture "The Revolutionary Romance." A hundred or more performers take part in the production.

Ye Liberty is to be the home of several famous feature pictures beginning with Saturday evening, when in six reels the photographic results of an arctic exploration which required many months of painstaking effort to secure the series of films, will be shown in this city for the first time. "At the Top of the World" is a production which faithfully depicts life as found in the almost unknown lands of the farthest north.

BIJOU THEATER

Two big holiday crowds enjoyed a splendid Monte Carter show last night at the Bijou theater and all agreed that it was one of the best shows that Carter has yet staged. Other shows are equally as good but this show had a decidedly different air about it that made everybody and everything connected with the show seem new and different. "Izzy in the Department Store" was the title of the bill and the scene was laid in a busy department store. The store was shown in detail and the scenic setting was pleasing to the eye. Izzy having married a woman who does not love him but has married him for his money only has his troubles. His wife goes to this department store to spend Izzy's money in a lavish style. Izzy follows her and the fun takes place in this store where Izzy gets a job so as to keep an eye on his wife. "At the Bully Woolly Wild West Show," a song with a western atmosphere about it, was sung by Walter Spencer and the chicks. Miss Del Estes sang "My Ever-Lovin' Sugar Babe," a catchy rag number. The show opened with a number by Nellie Morey, entitled "Whistling Jim." A duet by Miss Loretta and Spencer, a solo by Geo. Archer, and a number by Frank Harrington and one by Miss Dee Loretta completed a splendid show.

Tonight, in addition to this clever show the chorus girls' contest will be held, when some entertaining novelties will be offered.

HAWAII THEATER

"For Another Sin," a photo play taken from one of the greatest productions of the age, and considered in a class with the "Two Orphans" and "The Old Homestead" will be the principal feature at the Hawaii theater this evening. This is a play that comes close home to nearly everybody, for who has not, at some time, been blamed for something that they did not do? There is always a certain amount of interest in a play of this nature for every grown-up in the audience. It is all real. It is touching through its realism.

Three other most interesting films will be shown in connection with this great photo play.

Commencing December 1 and for three nights, the "International Conspiracy" will be the striking feature at the Hawaii. This is a photo play that should not be missed under any consideration.

OAHU REUNION OF WEDNESDAY IS SUCCESSFUL

Before an enthusiastic body of alumni and students the Oahu College students "stunts" and the first alumni rally held in Charles R. Bishop hall proved to be a huge success. Wednesday night was a good time to hold the reunion of old Punahou graduates for all the members of the school were in high spirits over the game to be played yesterday and the cheers given under the direction of cheer King Emory echoed to all parts of the campus.

Many of Oahu Colleges oldest graduates were on hand to join in the spirit of the school and to see Old School hall, which has been put in its original form by their subscriptions.

The program opened with a selection by Ernest Heene's orchestra. Following this each class entertained with its special "stunt," besides a selection on the guitar by Edison Hutchinson and Ernest Heene, and the student body in choir and songs. The freshman came after the orchestra's curtain raiser with a humorous selection in which Harvey Hitchcock took the chief part. The next on the program was a clown dance by the sophomores. Following the sophs were the juniors with a pretty allegorical production in which Miss Ramona Morgan took the chief part. Between the second and third "stunts" Ernest Heene and Ed Hutchinson played on their guitars. Finally the seniors' "stunt" took the stage in the form of a lively minstrel show, led by Malcolm Tuttle and Closson Emory. Stafford Austin danced a clog dance and Emory sang a song about the members of the senior class of 1914. Emory then took complete control and the whole school joined in singing school songs and cheering the team and the alumni. Still singing the students marched over to Old School hall and welcomed the alumni to their old school house, which was inspected by the former grads.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Dr. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria.
Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in infants and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market." J. A. SARGENT, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise, and it is in use every where." J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and efficient laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood." CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble." C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children." J. A. BOARMAN, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.
